RE: CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Celebration of Life Tradition:

The name and photo of the deceased Monarch(s) will appear in the ISRC Coronation program immediately following their demise.

The name and photo of the deceased Monarch(s) will be displayed at the ISRC Coronation immediately following their demise. The display will also include a bouquet of roses and the “Celebration of Life Court Banner”. The display will not include a crown or crown pin.

The Celebration of Life court banner will consist of the ISRC crest on a black background. The banner will be the same regulation size of the Monarchs banner. The banner shall be the property of the ISRC and shall be placed in court storage to be used only in the celebration of life ceremony.

This tradition as cited above shall be reserved exclusively for the passing of Monarchs of the ISRC.

Respectfully submitted,

Rose Empress XXXI Cicely
